What does IIA Netherlands do?

The mission of IIA Netherlands is to develop and promote internal audit in the Netherlands and to support internal auditors, directors and other stakeholders in the successful implementation of the internal audit function.

Promoting the Profession

The IIA maintains a continuous dialogue with key stakeholders, such as regulators, corporate governance committees, professional associations and interest groups, about the relevance of internal audit as a vital component of corporate governance.

Quality Management

IIA Netherlands upholds confidence in the profession by performing quality assessments on the existing systems of quality control within individual internal audit departments (every five years).

Advocacy

The IIA actively develops policy positions about (proposed) changes in the rules and regulations of various stakeholders that may affect internal auditing.

Certifications

IA Netherlands supports and accredits postgraduate internal audit courses at Dutch universities and the resulting certification of the Register of Operational Auditors (RO).

The IIA also monitors the mandatory annual professional education of IIA members with the RO qualification.

Professional support

IIA Global publishes the Internal Audit Standards and additional guidance. IIA Netherlands translates this guidance into Dutch, and also publishes various position papers, discussion papers and other materials (in Dutch and English) on relevant issues to enhance and enrich internal audit knowledge and skills in the Dutch context.

IIA Netherlands offers a complete overview of all relevant training in the field of auditing through the IIA Academy. The institute also organizes in-house training for internal audit functions who want this.

The Foundation of Professional Research (Stichting Vaktechnisch Onderzoek - SVO) of IIA Netherlands finances technical and scientific research in the field of internal auditing.
